Justin-Siena High School Girls Basketball Team Day – April 8, 2014

WHEREAS, the Justin-Siena Girls Basketball team, led by Head Coach Mike Boles and Assistant Coaches Penni Cremen, Micah Putnam, Andy Bettencourt, Vicky Deely and Gianna Wright, completed a highly successful season capped off by winning the CIF Northern California Championship title and advancing to the CIF Title Game; and

WHEREAS, the Justin-Siena Girls Basketball team, called the Justin-Siena Braves, defeated Colfax, West Campus, Scott's Valley and Arcata High Schools en route to their first Northern California Championship since 1985; and

WHEREAS, the Braves worked hard all season long, compiling a 29-7 record, and through their teamwork that began clicking into high gear in the post-season, they began believing in one another and trusting one another's talents to not only win the Northern California championship, but also to win the MCAL Regular Season and Tournament Championships; and

WHEREAS, all 12 Justin-Siena Girls Basketball players contributed to the team's success, including: Melissa Castellucci, Catherine Cronwall, Ryley Donohoe, Isabel Jennings, Lindsey Krill, Andrea Mallari, Bettina Moore, Alisyn Slinsen, Haley Weaver, Haley Cremen, Sadie Irvine and Morgan Malloy. Cremen, Irvine and Malloy earned MCAL first team and second team honors for their performances during the year.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that I, Mark Luce, on behalf of the Napa County Board of Supervisors, hereby congratulate the Justin-Siena Girls Basketball team for their outstanding accomplishments and proclaim April 8, 2014, Justin-Siena Girls Basketball Team Day in Napa County.
