RE: Angela Peatman's application for Commissioner on the Napa County Commission on Aging

At Share the Care Napa Valley, we are immensely grateful for the fortitude of work and perseverance that Mrs. Peatman has poured into building a strong organization in support of our community's older adults.

A long time philanthropist, non-profit builder, member of numerous boards and committees, Ms. Peatman is an outstanding candidate for Commissioner. She is a former director of Share the Care, and a current volunteer.

A Napa native, she is a dedicated professional who has volunteered most of her life for the good of our community. Her efforts have included building serving on as a volunteer and director of the COPE family Center, volunteering and director of Puertas Abiertas Community Resource Center and a faithful support of St. John's Catholic Parish. She is also a political activist who has supported numerous candidates for public office.

We believe she will make an excellent Commissioner. Not only is she bringing a wide range of experience, but she also is a forward thinking enthusiast determined to make Napa Valley a great place to grow old.

Please consider her application in the highest regard. She is a spark that will ignite the Commission into making a difference for us all.

Thank you,

Yvonne Baginski, Director
