I am writing in support of Joyce Plowmans project at 3000 Saint Helena Hwy North.
Not only am I a homeowner on Whitehall Lane but also a resident of Park City Utah where Joyce has her gallery.
I also used to own a property a block from this site. I believe her art displayed on the Highway would be a useful addition.

Thanks

Subject: IRONHORSE GALLERY

My name is Myrna Caratti and I reside at 3 San Juan Court in St. Helena.
Before moving to the Napa Valley, I served as the Art Director for two prestigious fine art galleries in San Francisco.

Joyce Plowman is a friend who lived many years in our Valley and went on to open one of the top galleries in Park City, Utah. She has looked for several years for a location in Napa County and has finally found the perfect location at Highway 29 and Lodi Lane. One of her most renown artists produces Kinetic Wind Sculptures. The artist, Lyman Whitaker, has his works displayed in many private and public collections all over the USA. His sculptures have both organic and mystical themes and would be totally harmonious in our surrounding vistas and indeed, would enhance our natural beauty.

Joyce Plowman proposes "planting a garden" of these magical forms outside her gallery space. I know it will become a very unique and special visual delight for locals and visitors alike, generating "Joy Power" for everyone who encounters them.

I urge you to grant the necessary permits so this project may come to fruition in the near future.

Sincerely,
Myrna Caratti

Subject: Joyce Plowman Permit Request

Recently I met with Joyce Plowman and she told me she was requesting a permit to put in an art gallery in the Altimura property at Lodi Lane and Highway 29.

I have never been to her gallery in Park City, Utah, however, my daughter has and told me how wonderful the gallery was with all original oils, plus the wind sculptures inside and outside. Not only was it unique, but a thing of beauty.

I have known Joyce from her days living in the Valley and since she moved to Park City she has talked about putting in a gallery here. The spot that she has chosen would be a perfect mix of location and the beauty of the kinetic sculptures creating a wind garden. When she was my neighbor in Oakville, she made a bare plot of land into an English garden with roses and paths running through. Her care for the environment and her creativity mesh and I know that what she would create at that corner would be an asset to that location.

Restaurants cannot work in that locale because of the restrictive 6:00pm closing time. Retail type establishments would not add to the looks of that corner nor be environmentally friendly.

I would ask that you do everything you can to help her secure the necessary permits. If there is a time when we should write to the supervisors, I would be glad to do that also.

Thanks for your efforts.

Hello Susan,

I am writing to show my support for the potential art gallery at St. Helena Highway and Lodi Lane. I've seen the work of Lyman Whittaker and his sculptures are truly magnificent. I can't think of a better use of that space than to turn it into a gallery where not only wind sculptures are displayed but other artists work is shown.

Please add me to the "absolutely yes" folder in support of this project.

Thank you,

I understand Ms. Joyce Ploughman is interested in opening an art gallery in the space adjacent to "A Dozen Vintners" on Highway 29 at Lodi Lane.

I can't think of a better and more lovely idea for using this space -- and what a nice attraction for the wine tasting option next door!

Thanks for considering,

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to offer my support for the proposed gallery at Lodi Lane and Highway 29 that Joyce Plowman is proposing. I have lived here in the Napa Valley for 35 years and have known Joyce for at least 15. During that time, she has demonstrated to me both her professionalism and creative inspiration in a number of ways. She worked quite successfully with Tom Scheibal at the Bale Mill Inn and Antiques as well as being a founding partner in the 90's of the gallery Trilogy in St. Helena. Joyce has an eye for bringing in unique art of very high quality that works perfectly with the Napa Valley lifestyle- complementing wine, food, and the arts. As a member of a family that has been very supportive of the arts in this community, I would like to see Joyce's vision realized.
