Re: Letter of Recommendation for JoAnn Busenbark

Dear Ms Miller:

On behalf of the Napa County Paratransit Coordinating Council, the PCC enthusiastically recommend the appointment of JoAnn Busenbark to the Napa County Commission on Aging.

Ms Busenbark has been involved with the PCC for many years, and was in fact, a founding member, and is currently PCC Chair. The purpose of the PCC is to advise the Napa County Transportation Planning Agency and member agencies about the expenditure of transportation funds that improve the availability of transit services for persons with special needs while meeting the needs of the general public.

Ms Busenbark's expertise and experience as a senior and disabled advocate, former city council member and NCTPA Chair and other community service endeavors and most recently as a Napa Valley College Trustee uniquely qualifies her to the Napa County Commission on Aging.

Sincerely,

Mike Zdon
NCTPA Executive Director
