Caldwell Vineyard is a family-owned, estate-grown Napa Valley winery established in 1981 on AW-zoned land where agriculture is deemed the highest, best use. We applied in 2016 to modify our winery use permit so we could make wine from all the grapes we grow, and sell all the wine we make. Like all small winegrowers today, selling direct to consumer is critical for us to stay in the black and keep our family business going for the next generation.

Our application for increased production and visitors was reviewed by County of Napa staff three times, and each time they concluded it complied with all applicable County standards. (These include very detailed rules about traffic increases, environmental
