BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSION

In 2000 the County entered into an agreement with the Juvenile Justice Network (JJN) which granted the JJN

$100,000 for the purchase, renovation, or replacement of the building located at 2310 First Street, Napa for the establishment of the Loyd Wolfe Center (Wolfe Center) which provides substance abuse treatment to teenagers and their families. Subsequently the County awarded the JJN an additional $125,000 in both 2001 and 2002 for a total award of $350,000.

The agreement with the JJN provides that the County has the right to demand repayment of all funds provided if, within a five year period after October 8, 2002, the JJN ceases to own the Wolfe Center or use the building as a substance abuse treatment center for at-risk youth. The JJN is proposing to transfer ownership of the Wolfe Center to Aldea for its continued use as a substance abuse treatment center. This item would allow that transfer of the ownership of the Wolfe Center from JJN to Aldea and would provide for the transfer of obligations under the original grant from JJN to Aldea without requiring any repayment of the funding.
